THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Lose Prohibitionists Fail of their Object.

Reed Re-elected by an Increased Majority.

Long Deadlock in Gen. Bragg's District Broken.

The Maine Election

PORTLAND, Maine September 13.—Advices from the principal cities in the state show that the weather is entirely propitious for the election. Bangor, Lewiston, Augusta, and other larger towns all report a "fine day." PORTLAND, September 13. The election is passing quietly here and the vote is rather light than usual. Much cutting is being done on local candidates. No estimate has been made as yet on the gubernatorial vote.

PORTLAND, September 13. The election is passing quietly. A light vote is being cast. Bodwell, republican, has a lead by the usual majority. Reed, republican, for congress, is thought to be running a little ahead of his ticket here.

PORTLAND, September 13. The present outlook is that the republicans will carry August county. At 3 o'clock returns showed about 475 majority. The prohibition vote is very small. Bodwell, Marston, republican, for congress, is 120 ahead of his ticket. At 1:30 it looks as if Bodwell has a very large majority. In Portland, Gustavus Moore, republican, will probably have a hundred majority and Bodwell a majority there.

PORTLAND, Maine, September 13. Knights of Labor, who formed their master workman, have expressed out of the prohibitionists, for a majority in the legislature. The demonstration is the same way. In spite of this everything at this hour points to an overwhelming republican majority over the last year.

PORTLAND, September 13. Forty towns give Bodwell, republican, for Governor, 11,[illegible], democrat, 7,675, Clarke, prohibitionist, [illegible].

Returns of votes in the First congressional district indicate that Reed, republican, will have from 1200 to 1400 plurality.

Twenty towns give Bodwell 17,414; Libby, democrat, 15,865; and Clarke 1095; against Robie in 1885, Bodwell 16,291, prohibition [illegible], greenbackers 829 and scattering 31; Bodwell's majority 5791 against 5690 a republican gain of 101.

BOSTON, September 13.—Republicans have elected all of their eleven representatives in the legislature. Returns from a large number of towns in the Second district show that Reed, republican, has been re-elected congressman by over 7,000 plurality over Searle, Democrat, and 5,000 majority over Bagley runs ahead of his ticket and is far behind. A large number of Democrats voted for Russell, the labor and prohibition candidate.

PORTLAND September 13.—One hundred and twenty towns give Bodwell 34,352, Edwards 27,[illegible], Clark 1765, against Robie 39,400, Redman prohibition 643, greenbackers 1575, scattering 7. Republican plurality 7000, against 10,700, a loss of 3,700. Congressional votes have been received. In the First district a majority for Reed is indicated, the others are close.

PORTSMOUTH, September 13.—Lincoln county gives Bodwell about 450 plurality. Reed, republican, is elected senator and all republican nominees for county offices were elected. The republican representatives and one democrat representative are elected.

[illegible], September 13. Republicans elect their ticket in this (Piscataquis) county by a majority of over 900. Republican senator and representatives are all elected.

PORTLAND, September 13. Two hundred and twenty-three towns give Bodwell 48,[illegible], democrat, 3621 and Clark, prohibitionist, [illegible]. The same towns in 1884 gave the republican, 55,830, Redman, democrat, 40,[illegible], prohibition, 840, two greenbackers 2013 and, scattering 9. Republican plurality this year in those towns is 14,090 in 1884, being a loss of 4409. Similar loss in towns yet to hear from will give an aggregate of 1,[illegible] divided as follows: Republicans 50, democrats 35,200, prohibitionists [illegible]. The labor ticket had no gubernatorial candidate. Hale for congressional candidate in the Fourth district. Full figures of the vote and the labor vote will probably not be known until the official figures come in. All four republican congressmen are elected by a large majority. The [illegible] probably 28 republicans [illegible] Democrats, [illegible] democrats, [illegible] 1884. Democrats [illegible] proportion, but [illegible] will have a handsome majority. [illegible] probably gone republican [illegible] for sheriff, who seems to have [illegible] been elected on the liquor question.

ALBANY, September 13. Republicans in Albany county elected every county officer, both senators and every representative except one by 4,000 plurality. Millitze, representative to congress, will have some 4,000 majority. The republicans won a complete victory in this city, the vote being Bodwell 12,[illegible], Edwards 9,[illegible], Clark 41, giving Bodwell a majority over the democratic candidate of 721 votes, the largest majority ever obtained by a republican in Augusta. In 1884 Robie's majority was 500.

MANCHESTER.

MANCHESTER, September 13.—Chairman Manley has sent the following telegram to the editor of the New York Tribune: The result of to-day's election is a far larger republican majority than was anticipated, the largest indeed given in the state for the past 15 years, except in presidential years. We expect seven thousand or eight thousand plurality. Figures at this hour (11 o'clock) indicate a plurality for Bodwell of not less than 12,000, and it is probably 14,000. We have carried every congressional district, elected two thirds to three-fourths of the legislature, thus securing to us the senate and county officers. Probably fourteen of the sixteen counties of the state are republican. The plurality in this city is the largest ever thrown, being more than 700 out of a total vote of 1800. The total vote of the state will be above 1 7,000, which is extraordinarily large for an off year. Out of this I figure that the third party vote will not exceed 5500, far less than was expected by leaders of the movement.

Cave in of a Mine

SCRANTON, September 13.—A serious cave in occurred in the Morvine shaft this morning. One man has been taken out dead. Six men are entombed alive. The caving parties are at work.

SCRANTON, Pa., September 13.—The Marvine shaft colliery, of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., was the scene of an extensive cave in this morning by which it is feared a number of men have lost their lives, but how many it is impossible to say, suppositions varying from six to nine. There seems to be but little question of the death of one of them, a man named John Schooler, and a number of others that were either crushed by the falling of rock and coal while making their escape up the slope. Following are the names of the injured: Henry Shafer, shoulder bruised and three ribs broken; Thomas Healy, laborer, slightly hurt; Joseph Reeds, driver, toes mashed; George Mason, miner, hurt badly; Peter Kelly, timber boss, was struck on the back of the head and on the shoulder by a falling rock. Kelly passed John Shafer, an elderly man, at the foot of the slope. He thinks that the rock which struck him struck Shafer also.

Two young men who were in the very furthest workings were behind Kelly and told Shafer as they passed him to hurry on and get out. They did not look back to see if he was following. As he has not since been seen the supposition is that he has been crushed under falling rock. Search for those still remaining in the mine and to ascertain the extent of the disaster was at once commenced. Fans were ordered set going at once at an unusual rate of speed to force it possible fresh air through the crevices of the fallen rock to reach the imprisoned men if still alive. Materials for a brattice and for restoring the air courses were at once gathered and sent down into the mines. The main road and the straight road, as they are called, are both blocked, and entrance through them is as yet impossible. There is a possibility, however, of effecting an entrance to the workings in the rear of the fall by means of another heading which runs near around twenty-five feet of the chamber in which John Young was working. Orders were at once given to the men to go to work and continue without cessation until the work was finished. By working shifts and spelling the men every three hours it is hoped to drill through this twenty-five feet of coal some time to-morrow, when, by getting in the rear of the fall, if the missing men are alive they will almost certainly be found. The chances of a rescue are very slim. It is just possible that they turned back at the first fall and made their way beyond the effects of the second fall. If this is the case they will have air enough to sustain life until a rescue. These are grave questions remaining to be answered, and the case seems so hopeless it seems the answer must be in the negative. So far as is known the names of the unfortunate men are as follows: John Carden, John Young, Patrick McAlity, Carmal Maguire, Patrick Cavanaugh, Patrick Murphy, Patrick Harrison.

The Situation at Charleston

CHARLESTON, September 13.—There is not much change in the situation to-day but strenuous efforts are being made to patch up houses in a rude way to make them water tight and allow residences to be occupied and business to be resumed. Considerable excitement has been caused by the refusal of bricklayers to work for less than $5 a day. The objection apparently is not so much as to the amount asked for as to the character of the work done, many of those claiming an advanced rate being for direct. At a special meeting of the council to-day, Mayor Courtenay reports that the total relief fund to this time is about $30,000. He said further that with the large measure of relief necessary to reach the many sufferers it was hardly necessary to say to the world of Charles on how small this sum would be when distributed among the sufferers.

A CRUSADE BEGUN.

The Liquor Ordinance Must be Enforced.

So Says Mayor Dow and the City Council.

Summonses Served on One of the City Druggists.

Colorado Springs has long enjoyed the reputation of being one of the strictest prohibition towns of the west. It has long been the boast of those who have taken pride in our city's growth that the saloon, as such, has been entirely unknown, and the grog shop has not been allowed to exist. There has ever been a pronounced sentiment on the part of a majority of our citizens in favor of maintaining the reputation which the town has acquired with respect to the sale of intoxicating liquors. But in the case of every law which is supposed to infringe upon the personal liberty of any citizen the application of the liquor ordinance upon our city statute books has met with more or less opposition, and in some instances with open violation, and the time and attention of many of our city officials have been given to the enforcement and carrying out of the provisions of this ordinance.

Matters relating to this ordinance have not been confined to the city officials, but the time of the county and district courts has been consumed in hearing the cases growing out of its enforcement and in passing upon the legality of its passage. In speaking of the liquor passage ordinance, we refer only in a general sense to that ordinance which has been recognized as the liquor ordinance from time to time, though it has been altered, amended and revised several times, and once by reason of an oversight in its passage by the city council was declared illegal. The ordinance as it exists to-day is as follows:

Be it ordained by the city council of the city of Colorado Springs, that any person who shall by himself or another either as principal, clerk, agent or servant keep a tippling house or other public place where any intoxicating, malt, vinous, mixed or fermented liquors are allowed to be drank, or sell any of the said liquors, and suffer the same to be drank upon the premises where sold or on premises that are in anywise under the control of the seller shall in any of these cases be deemed guilty of a nuisance and shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars for each and every offense.

This ordinance was passed by the council and approved by Mayor pro tem. Strickler on the 6th of July, 1885, but under it no prosecutions have been brought except the one of which we inform our readers this morning. At the last city election Mr. F. E. Dow was elected mayor. He was nominated by a body known as the republican city convention. The following resolution was passed by that body and may be taken as indective of the sentiment of the party (whose nominee Mr. Dow was) with reference to the question of enforcing the above ordinance. The resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That we believe that the great majority of the citizens of this city most heartily endorse the following sentiments, namely, that prohibition of the sale of intoxicating beverages is a fundamental element and underlying principle of the birth, growth and prosperity of our beautiful city (a principle which cannot be disregarded or set aside without gross public dishonor), and that the preservation and maintenance of this principle in our municipal affairs is essential to the future development and continued attractiveness of our city as a place where home life can command its fullest happiness."

Mayor Dow in his inaugural address said: "Believing it to be essential for the best interests of the city as well as incumbent on me as its chief executive officer I shall advocate at all times a strict enforcement of our ordinances and hope in this to have the encouragement and co-operation of the council."

A few weeks after Mayor Dow entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office he personally visited all of the city druggists and exhorted a promise from each and every one of them that they would faithfully observe the provisions of the ordinance. Have they done so remains to be seen. Last week the GAZETTE announced that there was a rumor in circulation to the effect that ten complaints had been made against one of the city druggists charged with violating this ordinance. On Saturday Marshal Saxton served summonses upon Charles and Anna Stockbridge to answer the charge of violating the liquor ordinance. In connection with the serving of the summonses Mayor Dow said to a GAZETTE representative last evening that he was determined to enforce the ordinance, and in this had the support of nearly the entire city council. The druggists, he claimed, had solemnly promised that they would not violate the ordinance, and he, at the time this promise was given, stated to the druggists that he would prosecute all violations of the ordinance to the fullest extent of the law. In serving these summonses, Mayor Dow is only carrying out the sentiment of the convention which nominated him and the statements which he made in his inaugural address.

That Mayor Dow and the council are sincere in this matter cannot be doubted, and they are determined to rigorously enforce each and every ordinance upon the city statute books.

That the sentiment of a majority of our citizens is with them in this step cannot be doubted and Mayor Dow and those of the council supporting him deserve great praise for the fearless stand they have taken. The day for the trial has not yet been determined upon, but whenever it does occur it will be watched with curiosity and interest. This is the first case which has been brought under the ordinance in its present form, and interest in the trial will be deepened in consequence, as the problem has been in the past to frame an ordinance which could satisfactorily stand the tests which might be brought to bear upon its legality, and the manner of its enforcement. No political ambition, or the desire for notoriety has induced the mayor to take this step. He has done it from conscientious motives, and with a deep appreciation of the duties and responsibilities of his position. In this step which he has taken we do not doubt that he will receive the support and well wishes of all law abiding citizens. The defendants will appear before police magistrate J. B. Searcy to answer the summonses, and the city will be represented by Mr. T. A. McMorris the city attorney.

Oddfellows' Excursion

To-morrow is the day set by the Odd Fellows for their departure to Boston to attend the annual national encampment of the order in that city. Mainly through the efforts of Mr. H. C. McCreery a special Pullman car has been secured for those members of the local lodge and their friends who desired to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the reduced railroad fare to visit the eastern cities. The car leaving this place will be attached to the south bound Thunderbolt and will proceed via Chicago and Niagara Falls to Boston, which latter place will be reached on Sunday. Stops will be made at Chicago and also at Niagara Falls. Among those who will go on the excursion from this place are A. C. Peck and wife, Henry Wilson, Irving Platt, O. Hemlek and daughter, L. Sritz and wife, H. T. O'Brien and wife, Phil Strubel and wife, H. C. McCreery, W. E. McLachan, George Cant, W. J. Baxter, Mrs Morris, F. E. Lord, C. P. Brown, A. Heaton, C. M. Leibold and wife, S. Heidelberger, M. M. Harriott, Mrs. A. C. Albright, W. F. Tilton, F. E. Robinson, A. L. Hubbard, Fred Thrasher, A. Heaton, F. Ralston and wife, J. M. McCoy and Frank Roby.

United States and Canada

WASHINGTON, September 13.—No demand, peremptory or otherwise, for the release and restoration of Canadian vessels seized in Alaskan waters has been received at the state department nor have the questions possibly involved in the seizure reached the secretary from any official source. Some of the remarkable utterances recently telegraphed from Ottawa and attributed to a member of the Dominion cabinet are thought at the department to be fabrications, it being incredible that any person holding a place of such grave responsibility should with the meagre information now in hand pledge the Canadian and British governments to an arbitrary course; and in advance even of presentation of their case to this government, predict "lively" times unless the demands are at once complied with.

Revolutionists Defeated

ST LOUIS, September 13.—A Rio Grande City, Texas, correspondent of the Globe Democrat, telegraphs to-night that on Friday last about sixteen miles from Camargo, Mexico, near Rancho Camargo, Col. Hernandez, commander of the government forces, surprised the revolutionists under Maurice Cruz, and there was a sharp fight, lasting thirty minutes, which resulted in the killing of ten revolutionists and the capture of three prisoners, Cruz's military correspondence, several horses and $20,000. The prisoners were brought to Camargo Saturday, but were taken away yesterday by Col Hernandez.

A Disaster Feared

GRAND HAVEN, Mich., September 13.—The small passenger steamer Gracie Parker, running between Charlevoix and Petoskey on the east shore of Lake Michigan, it is feared has been lost. According to bottles found on shore she had one hundred passengers on board.

A Deadlock Broken.

MILWAUKEE, September 13.—Finally the deadlock of two weeks in the Second congressional district democratic convention was broken by the nomination of Arthur R. Delany of Dodge on the 210th ballot. The vote stood 15 to 15.

Geronimo's Fate

WASHINGTON, September 13.—General Phil Sheridan in a few days will go to Leavenworth, Kan., to attend the annual shooting competition between teams of the regular army. A reporter of the post asked him about the fate of Geronimo. "I do not yet know," he said, "whether any conditions were attached to his surrender. There is no doubt what should be done with him. He is entitled to no mercy. If he can't be dealt with summarily he will probably be removed east of the Mississippi, to Florida perhaps, the very place where he doesn't want to go. The Dry Tortugas would be a good reservation for him."

War Claims.

WASHINGTON, September 13.—The second comptroller of the treasury has given an opinion in regard to war claims of the state of Ohio, in which he holds that whatever necessary stores and supplies were furnished by that state for the sick and wounded soldiers employed in the federal service in the war of the rebellion and whatever hospital quarters were furnished by the state for care of sick soldiers, including necessary cost of transportation from the field to hospital, are reimbursable under the provisions of the acts of July 17 and 27, 1861.

Tories in the house of commons are gathering all their forces to oppose Parnell's land bill. Gladstone's promised assistance has aroused their fears.

England and France are having a dispute about their fishing grounds, and France in retaliation for like action has seized a fleet of English fishing vessels in French waters.

The civil service of the British government has been held up as a model one, which it was desirable to imitate in this country. That it is not altogether what it should be appears from the appointment of a royal commission to inquire into the necessity of reform.

The Russian and Austrian maneuvers this year are on the border of Poland and Austria, so near that the two great camps are almost within sight of each other. Germany's great maneuvers are to be in Alsace. There is considerable bluffing in these military displays.

The currency question is exciting extraordinary interest in England. Recent issues of leading newspapers of Great Britain say that this subject has excited more attention and discussion at the exchanges than the Bulgarian difficulty. Hope is expressed that the European powers through an international conference can be induced to adopt a bimetallic currency. An explanation of the rise in silver is found in the statement that agents of the German government have been purchasing silver for the past two months, leaving the London market entirely unsupplied.

By reference to the article in our local columns it will be seen that the city authorities have taken steps to rigorously enforce the liquor ordinance. The mayor and the council are only fulfilling their sworn duty and the occasion should provoke no further comment than that they are alive to responsibilities of their several positions. As to the guilt or innocence of the accused parties, we have nothing to say, as the names of the complaining witnesses and the subject matter of their testimony have not yet been given to the public. In their effort to enforce the law the mayor and his supporters deserve the co-operation of all the citizens of this community who have the welfare of the city at heart.

Enough has been received from the election in Maine to show that the prohibitionists have failed in their effort to defeat the republican party. All of the counties seem to be successful. There was little doubt as to the result except in the first district, where extraordinary efforts were made to defeat Hon. T. B. Reed, the republican leader of the house. Several naval vessels were sent to Kittery for repairs and nothing was spared by the party managers to secure his defeat. Bates retains his place by his majority at nearly double that of the last election. The vote for governor was very light, considering the active campaign. From returns covering half of the entire vote the loss to the republicans has been nearly five thousand. The democrats lost two thousand. The republican vote did not go to the prohibitionists for their vote is less than two thousand although nearly three times as much as it was in '84. The evident desire to unite this body of voters with the democrats has opened the eyes of many temperance men and it is safe to say that even four thousand votes will never be cast in Maine without an issue. The inconsistency of Maine prohibitionists is shown in the following editorial paragraph by the New York Tribune:

No doubt there are honest temperance men who are misled by the third party movement. But this cannot be said of men like St. John who are paid $50 a night for speeches in Maine against the republican party and the protective tariff. There are thirty-two states which have neither statutory nor constitutional prohibition. Maine has both. Without an amendment to the constitution congress cannot pass a prohibitory liquor law. Men having the interests of the temperance cause at heart would not waste their time in Maine, which has shown itself by ratification in such an amendment, while there are thirty-two states that have not even passed a statute law on the subject. You must look for other reasons for the presence in Maine of these imported third party speakers. They can be found in their speeches. St. John devotes much of his time to attacks upon the tariff, and the republican leaders will see that by averring history by such misrepresentations as these he is no friend to parties in that state. The democratic party has done very little against prohibition, and the republican party very little for prohibition. The democratic party in Maine is the party where it is a potent political force. It opposes the law now in force in Maine, and of the thirty amendments that have been made to the original act, and at the request of the temperance leaders, the democrats have consistently opposed them all. The eleventh hour in St. John's case is disclosed in his attacks on the party which passed and has upheld this law, while he has only soft words for the party that is opposed to the law, and in his attacks on the tariff which is a cardinal principle of republican faith. If the prohibitory law is a failure in Maine, as these hired speakers declare, on what ground will they urge the passage of such laws in other states? These alleged prohibitionists, by their extraordinary course in Maine, are doing more to injure the cause they have at heart than they can do good in the remainder of their natural lives. They find it necessary now to declare the Maine law a practical failure, in order to excuse their presence in the state.

Professor Winnecke, formerly director of the Strasburg observatory, and discoverer of numerous comets, has been obliged to retire from scientific work, his mind having become unsettled. He is not yet fifty years old.

Almost the last words uttered by Liszt, a few hours before his death, while awakening from a state of lethargy that had lasted for hours, were "Quelle chaleur au théâtre." "An revoir, Tristan." And suddenly jumping from his bed he exclaimed excitedly (in German): "Hi! you pursuing me! then calming down, he said to his faithful servant, Mischko likewise in German: "Oh, this is Mischko—yes, yes—you are Mischko. Don't be angry with me for talking thus incoherently—you see I am sick!" And he let the servant put him to bed again very quietly, after which he only murmured a word now and then. The last intelligible word heard was "Tristan."

The North China Herald in referring to the fact that Charles Lever has left the post of British consul at Spezia while Garibaldi was imprisoned there after the fight at Aspromonte, states that the following is taken from a letter in which the author is not stated, but is probably authentic: "Lord Palmerston, who was recently informed in Garibaldi's behalf, never thought Garibaldi was to have anything that could alleviate his sufferings from his wound and his imprisonment. Mr. Partridge, the eminent surgeon, was consulted, and he suggested providing the delivery of Italy with a surgical couch. Accordingly a couch with all the necessary fittings, was bought of the well known maker, Aldermann, in Soho square, and sent out to Lever for presentation to Garibaldi, the cost, between $80 and $100, being met out of the secret service funds at the disposal of the British foreign office."

Virginia Election

WINCHESTER, Va., September 13.—A large vote is being polled. Indications all point to the election of the dry ticket. Much zeal is manifested on both sides. Negro ticket holders of the dry ticket go to five and their vote for the first time is much divided. All political distinctions are obliterated and democrats and republicans vote together on each side of the question. The election promises to be quiet.

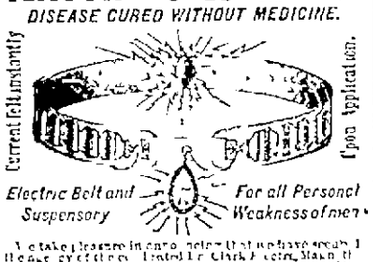
NATURE'S REMEDY.
DISEASE CURED WITHOUT MEDICINE.



We take pleasure in announcing that we have secured the agency of the celebrated Dr. Clark's Electric Belt, patented October 13, 1885, and will hereafter carry in stock the crowning triumph in Electric science. Unlike such worthless and cruel imposters as Dr. Dye's and other belts that depend for their virtue on a little acid, which burns the patient's flesh, and leaves the skin in a worse condition than before, this Belt is free from all such objections, and is the only Electric Belt that can be worn by the most delicate person without injury. In short, it is the Belt of Belts, and we always take pleasure in recommending Electricity for all treatable cases, knowing that in nine cases out of ten it will do the work. Dr. Clark's Electric Belt is recommended by the U. S. Government, and has received more testimonials than any other Electric Belt in the market. This Belt will cure the worst case of Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, Wasting Weakness, Lame Back, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Nervous Prostration and Weakness of the Sexual Organs, Impotence, Premature Decay, Want of Health and Energy, and Kindred Troubles, in every case.

We take it for granted that every intelligent reader is in search of the BEST MADE and best known article, and we claim that the Clark Electric Belt is far ahead of any other Electric Belt before the public, as it contains a quantity of fluid equal to a quart bottle of ordinary acid, which produces a strong, healthy, penetrating current, and is the only Electric Belt in the market that will not burn the patient's flesh. We warrant the Belt for 3 years and to be fully equal to any Electric Belt offered for sale, or we will make it up to the Belt complained of free of charge. TO MEN suffering from the effects of youthful folly or other causes, we will send a Belt on 30 days' trial, illustrated and descriptive pamphlet with full information, by mail, inclosed in sealed envelope, free.

A Struggle Expected in the Commons on Randolph's Bill.

Scotch Protestants Feel Insulted by Randolph Churchill

The Trouble in the East

LONDON, September 1[illegible]—It is remarked [illegible] Emperor Francis Joseph is at Przemysl in Galicia and the czar at Brest Litovsk in Poland not more than 250 kilometres apart, neither has given any sign of the intention of meeting the other. In fact neither has sent the other a congratulatory [illegible] (Dispatch.)

The New Free Press of Vienna complains of the czar's breach of courtesy toward Austria. It says it is known that Russian military movements are taking place at various points on the Austrian dominions. It shows the principal theatre of war in case of Russian conflict with Austria. It says it is at the same time viewing a special number of Austrian troops, the total being over sixty thousand men at a point which would naturally be the seat of operations in the same event. These are says the New Free Press, two campaigns and two vast armies almost within sight of each other.

LONDON, September 13.—Great excitement has been caused at Chatham by the unexpected receipt of urgent orders from the admiralty to expedite the completion of the men's leaves of absence, day and night if necessary. This action is considered as indicating possible serious complications.

Elaborate precautions were taken to prevent the czar during his journey to Poland to witness the army manoeuvres. Sentinels armed with loaded rifles lined the railway and the track was divided into three sections. When passing stations the windows were closed and blinds were drawn in order to prevent the sight of the carriage which was occupied by the czar. After the manoeuvres returning through Spalas Poland when similar precautions will be taken for his protection, 50,000 soldiers being utilized for this service.

Dr. Nicholas Vanovsky of St. Petersburg, says a special cable has been committed in the celebration of Alexander's and the anniversary day. It contained an article saying that if the presentation of the colors to the Finland regiment was intended to indicate a further Russian policy it will indicate that the speeches by Scharnhorst at the decisive moment.

Bulgaria's National Assembly

SOFIA, September 13.—The national assembly met today. The Russian agent has received a reply to Bulgaria's proposal. It certainly says that it will recognize Prince Ferdinand as the union of Eastern and Roumelia is the union of Bulgaria and Roumelia is a fait accompli. Russia will not oppose the union to Bulgaria but will not consent to the new prince being sent to the Bulgarian throne. The Russian agent has not communicated the czar's reply to the Bulgarian government because relations between Russia and Bulgaria are very strained. During the meeting of the national assembly the president of the council proposed that a deputation be sent to the czar to communicate with the Bulgarian government direct instead of through agents.

A German banking house has declined a request from the Bulgarian government for a loan for that country.

Parnell's Land Bill

LONDON, September 13.—Parnell's land bill provides suspends evictions on payment of half of the rent due. Many Gladstonians disapprove of the amount of reduction. Parnellites assert that the fall in values justifies the demand of over 50 per cent reduction. Parnell, in a conference with Mr. Morley, asked a reduction of 70 per cent but on Mr. Morley's appeal modified the reduction to 50 per cent. Parnell's bill also included leaseholders.

The government's response will be that Parnell's estimate is inaccurate, that the executive returns of market values for rents show a reduction of prices in Ireland similar to England and Scotland, and from 30 to 40 per cent. Sir Michael Hicks Beach and Lord Randolph Churchill will be at all bill of Irish tenants will be unable to pay their rents in November or that a general loss are preferable. The second reading will take place on Friday, Parnell has privately announced that he will not take part in the debate on Monday. It is understood that he will support the bill. His promised assistance is expected. Gladstonians. Unionist leaders can appeal to moderate members from the country to return to London and support the bill. The government also will appeal to absentees. The conservatives attempt to curtail debate to one night. The debate will probably occupy five nights.

Insulted Scotchmen

LONDON, September 13.—The Scottish Protestant alliance will meet to discuss the action of Lord Randolph Churchill in their behalf in the appointment of Henry Matthews as home secretary, which was based on the ground that he was a Roman Catholic. James Dalton, director of the Glasgow Herald, wrote a letter to Lord Randolph Churchill in which he says: "You have offered an insolent reply to a respectful document. Although you are a cabinet minister, we observe [illegible]

[illegible] astonishment [illegible] that you have [illegible] Irish [illegible] votes with [illegible] by [illegible] Roman Catholic [illegible] the church [illegible]

Condition of the Irish Farmer

LONDON, September 13.—The Irish Land League has issued a pamphlet [illegible] Irish [illegible] for the use of members of the [illegible] of the press. The object of the Irish tenant farmer [illegible] the pamphlet has within the past sixteen years undergone marked amelioration owing to various remedial statutes. There has certainly been a fall in prices but everything considered is nothing exceptionally bad in Irish agriculture. The Irish [illegible] advantages of tenure than other people. With improved methods there is no reason to look to the future with [illegible]. Here figures are quoted showing that full advantage is taken of the rights of tenure in holdings. The pamphlet continues: Leaving aside the historical fact it is necessary to state briefly some facts regarding evictions by the land act of last. A tenant cannot possibly be evicted until he refuses to pay rents or refuses to comply with certain [illegible] conditions of forming an [illegible] fair rent. Meanwhile [illegible] payment of rent can't be brought for less than a year and [illegible] naturally due. If [illegible] brought [illegible] reclaim his property at any time within six months after execution of the writ or may within the same period sell the tenancy after the writ has been executed to anybody, and the purchaser may reclaim the property. Many other advantages are possessed by tenants. Therefore an eviction is dangerous and costly to the landlord and is only possible in extreme cases. If a year's rent should fall due in September or November the landlord does not get a decree until the January sessions, and six months must elapse before he can gain possession of his land. The landlord is then liable to the tenant for crops, so that nearly two years must elapse before he fully recovers his tenancy.

Irish Disorder

DUBLIN, September 13.—Three moonlighting raids took place last night, all of them close to the headquarters of General Roberts' hollers.

William Cuffe, a bailiff who had made himself very obnoxious by his severe treatment of a tenant which he had recently evicted, went early to attend to mass at Becarra chapel. When the tenant and women of the congregation saw Cuffe in the chapel noticed Cuffe [illegible] was dragged from the building. When they had [illegible] Cuffe [illegible] were begging for a chance at him. Among those who were twelve of Cuffe's evicted. The crowd was [illegible] and [illegible] Cuffe [illegible] (not stripped with wood) with double bottom and divided into numerous water-tight compartments, fitted with a complete and powerful pumping system and with draining and ventilation throughout, ram bow, and steel armored deck running the whole length of the [illegible] Its [illegible] [illegible] steel armored deck [illegible] feet long [illegible] electric search lights. The ship is to be driven by twin screws and when fully equipped and with all her [illegible] shall be capable of maintaining a speed of [illegible] knots an hour on measured mile. The Markets

NEW YORK, September 13.—Money on call easy at [illegible] per cent, last loan [illegible] per cent, closing offered at [illegible] per cent. Sterling exchange steady at $4 8[illegible] for 60 days, demand $4 84[illegible]. Government bonds dull but steady. The stock market was strong and showed more life than on any previous day for some weeks. Bears seemed to be demoralized and bulls for the time being had complete control of the course of prices. With the exception of a slight reaction in Lackawanna and another in the Pacifics there was an almost steady upward movement and while sales in each stock were increased the dealings were extended to a much larger number of stocks than of late. While there was no particular new source of influence values the general advance was made upon improved feeling in the street, there being very little outside buying as yet. First prices showed advances ranging from ½ to 5 the latter in Louisville & Nashville while Lackawanna and Jersey Central were each up 1½. There was considerable excitement at the opening and for the first half hour there was an unusually active business but after a few further slight advances prices yielded and afternoon were slightly under opening figures. Later, however a general advance took place which culminated about 3 p.m., when the highest prices generally were recorded. Another slight yielding in values followed but the market recovered before the close which was about steady at the best prices of the day.

Mining shares were dull. Little Chief sold at [illegible], Little Pittsburg, 40, Sutro, Silver King $4.00, American Flag 8.

It resulted in a regular slugging match and was stopped by the town squad of Lake police at the end of the second round. One of the referees decided that Ryan had the best of the fight. The other declared it a draw. The fight took place in the rain on a boat upon which a floor for the ring was made. From start to finish the fight was a vicious one on the part of both men, the referees being necessary for the referees to keep them with umbrellas and clubs and pull the men apart. The fight was stopped at 10.30 p.m., and the drenched and disgusted 1,500 spectators made a rush for the train.

It has been brought to our notice that several ladies have been the recipients of insulting letters. We will say for the benefit of the individual sending them that he is known and will be summarily dealt with if he does not heed the warning given him.

Colorado Springs Lodge No. 83, I. O. G. T., has subscribed ten dollars towards the fund being raised by the lodges throughout the United States for the benefit of the widow of Rev. Mr. Haddock, who was assassinated in Iowa City a few months ago.

Mr. Frank C. Cooper and wife of Chicago are in the city. Mr. Cooper is on the staff of the Chicago Inter-Ocean and is employing his vacation by travelling in the west. He will remain here a few days and will visit the various localities of interest in this vicinity.

The annual meeting of the Colorado State Wool Growers association will be held at Greeley, October, 5th. Mr. W. F. Wilder, president of the association, goes to Denver to-day to secure reduced railroad fare for the delegates and to make other necessary arrangements.

The prohibition club which was organized at the recent prohibition county convention will meet this evening at the city hall. The prohibitionists intend to nominate full county and precinct tickets for the coming election and the date of holding the county convention for that purpose will be determined at the meeting to-night.

Mr. Michael E. Mulloy and Miss Annie Husnuk were married at the Catholic church of this city on Sunday afternoon in the presence of a large assembly of friends. After the ceremony the happy couple proceeded to Manitou, their future home, where many presents of congratulating friends were displayed. A very creditable life-size portrait of the bridegroom by Miss Twelmyer attracted general attention.

Alamo Arrivals—J. D. Thompson, G. W. Simmons, Shepherdsville, Kentucky; T. W. Wright, Denver; A. J. Schneider, Pittsburg; C. H. Casler, Denver; Frank C. Cooper and wife, Chicago; Z. F. Wilbur, C. C. Kinzie, New York; Nat Lynch, Pittsburg; Geo. W. Bissell, San View; J. N. Hayes, Hartford, Connecticut; J. Soderberry and wife, Denver; C. A. Sprague, Chicago; D. M. Kearney, Kansas City; G. W. Callin, Denver.

Two car loads of machinery and other necessary articles belonging to the electric light company were shipped from Pittsburg, Pa., on Saturday. Among the machinery are two engines and two dynamos. As soon as the cars arrive the machinery will be placed in position in the building, which is now in course of erection on Huerfano street, between Tejon street and Nevada avenue. The company estimates that it will take them three weeks to complete the placing of wires already ordered.

The Antlers Arrivals—H. B. Houston, Denver; P. Millhiser, Richmond; A. McArthur, A. V. Hartwell, Chicago; W. V. Tascher, J. Savageau, Denver; W. B. Tuttle, Denver and Rio Grande railroad; B. H. Feltwell, Philadelphia; Mrs. M. M. Knapp, New Jersey; J. M. Knapp, city; James Monteith, Miss Lilian Monteith, New York; Mrs. Flanigan, Philadelphia; J. L. MacLellan, Colorado; Lord Kisteven, N. C. Ranchmen from the grazing sections of the county report the range in an unusually fine condition. The grass is fine and curing nicely, and if the present fine weather only continues for a week longer stock men need have but little fear as to the condition of the range next winter. The great loss in stock last winter was caused not so much by the severity of the winter as by the condition of the grass. Very late rains prevented its curing properly, and frost came while it was still green, thus depriving it of its nourishing qualities. From the present outlook it appears that this danger need not be apprehended this year.

A Kansas City exchange in speaking of the opera company that is to appear in our city Monday and Tuesday evenings, September 20th and 21st, says: "The last week of the Chicago Opera company has been a financial and artistic success. The Mikado was put on the first three evenings and The Sorcerer the last three. The company departs knowing that they have pleased Kansas City audiences to a marked degree. The initial presentation of The Sorcerer was remarkably smooth. William H. West was admirable as Sir Marmaduke. Mr. Barnes' Alexis was well sung. Stanley Felch, as John Wellington Wells, possessed a good opportunity for comedy, and he made good use of his ready and sparkling wit. J. A. Allison, as Dr. Daly, found opportunity to exhibit the excellent quality of his voice in song. Miss Elssing as Aline was pretty and in happy voice, especially so in the tea-making scene. Miss Marcellus was well cast as Lady Sangazure. Viola Frost's Constance was exquisitely sung."
